MIAMI – Pollo Tropical® and the Florida Marlins recently teamed up with Big Brothers Big Sisters of Greater Miami to host BBBS Day at the Florida Marlins. Little Brothers and Sisters, their families and volunteers enjoyed an exclusive tailgate party at the Florida Marlins stadium complete with a delicious lunch and ballgame.

Big Brothers Big Sisters of Greater Miami is a South Florida organization that helps thousands of children each year through professionally supported, one-on-one relationships with adult volunteers. Nationally, Big Brothers Big Sisters serves more than 200,000 children, ages 6 through 18 in 5,000 communities across the United States. For more information on Big Brothers Big Sisters of Greater Miami, visit www.wementor.org.

BBBS Day was filled with fun, food and giveaways. Just in time for back to school, each child who attended BBBS Day received a free book bag courtesy of Office Depot. Pollo Tropical sponsored meals for the 500 party guests, which featured the restaurant's popular citrus-marinated grilled chicken, homemade rice and beans, bread and snacks. The recent annual event hosted by Big Brothers Big Sisters is the only one that volunteers, Little Brothers and Sisters and their families celebrate together.

About Pollo Tropical®

Born in a Caribbean kitchen with a Latin accent in the melting pot of Miami, the Pollo Tropical signature citrus marinated, tropical-spiced grilled chicken (Pollo in Spanish) created its namesake. People came from all over just to get a taste of the Pollo. Today, that same recipe is being grilled fresh and served fast to about 20 million loyal Pollo Tropical fans at more than 120 Pollo Tropical restaurants in six countries. There's no mistaking the taste, the freshness and the flavor of Pollo Tropical.
